For further study:

Build with wisdom:

Read Matthew 7:24-27

Determine from the Sermon on the Mount (Matthew chapters 5-7)

Which teachings are you ignoring?

Which teachings have you put into practice in your life?

Which teachings are hardest for people?

Have you accepted the wise choice of having Jesus as your foundation?

Build with skill:

Search through Psalm 119

Look for ways that the author (unknown) is practical.

Look for the ways the author is joyful.

What is the connection between being practical and being joyful?

Ephesians 6:10-17 is the passage on the armor of God.

Paul is telling us to be practical in our application of our spiritual lives,

Which of the pieces of armor are you tending to lack?

Which pieces are you good at remembering?

Is there a connection between your joy and your faithfulness to “build with skill?”

Build with knowledge:

In the book of Revelation, Jesus writes letters to seven churches

(Revelation chapters 2 and 3).

In what ways does Jesus judge these churches?

Will he judge the church of Orchard Community?

How can we make changes to our personal lives and to our church with the knowledge that he cares how we behave?
